Will Throw Historic Monticello Open to Jamestown Visitors During Year.

Hon. Jefferson M. Levy, former Congressman from New York City, and owner of "Monticello," has been the owner of "Monticello," has been the guest of his friend, Governor Swan-son, at the mansion, for several days, When a representative of The Times Dispatch called last night, Mr. Levy, who feels an abiding interest in the welfare of Virginia and the South, consented to talk on the outlook for business conditions during the year, and he did so in a most interesting manner.

and he did so in a most interesting manner.

"First of all," said the former Congressman and financial leader, "I want to say that I have not been in Richmond before since 1893, and I am absolutely amazed as well as deeply gratified at the wonderful strides made by your beautiful city.

"The splendid new Capitol is a great improvement. The changes wrought are wonderful. The old Exchange and Ballard are gone, and the Jefferson and the Richmond have been added to the list of new and commodious hostelries. The fine residences which have risen and the commercial and business houses that have gone up have changed the whole appearance of things, and Richmond looks like a new city.

Sight of Eye Destroyed by Disease-Tried Five Doctors but Grew Worse-In Agony Eight Months - Parents Discouraged, Until They Tried Cuticura Remedies

IN ONE WEEK ALL SORES DISAPPEARED

"Our little girl, one year and a half old, was taken with eczema or that was what the doctor said it was. We called in the family doctor and he gave some tablets and said she would be all right in a few days. The eczema grow worse and we called in doctor No. 2. He said she was teething, as soon as the teeth were through she would be all right. But she still grew worse. Doctor No. 3 said it was eczema. By this time she was nothing but a yellow, greenish sore. Well, he said he could help her, so we let him try it about a week. One morning we discovered a little yellow pimple on one of her eyes. Of course we phoned for doctor No. 3. He came over and looked her over and said that he could not do anything more for her, that we had better take her to some eye specialist, since it was an ulcer. So we went to Oswego to doctor No. 4, and he said the eye-sight was gone, but that he could help it. We thought we would try doctor No. 5. Well, that proved the same, only he charged 310 more than doctor No. 4. We were nearly discouraged. I saw one of the Cuticura atvertisements in the paper and thought we would try the Cuticura Treatment, so I went and purchased a set of Cuticura Remedies, which cost me 31, and in three days our daughter, who had been sick about eight months, showed great improvement, and in one week all sores had disseppared. Of course it could not receive the eye sight, but if we had used Cutiona vin time I am confident that it would have saved the eye. Mr. Levy's last visit to Richmond was as a delegate to the Democratic State Convention which nominated the late Governor O'Ferrall. In that campaign Mr. Levy was chairman of the State League of Democratic Clubs, and devoted his whole time to the work. The State was carried in that and the previous presidential campaign by over 55,000 majority for the Democratic Licket.

into the rear end of a parted freight train
one mile east of here to-night.
Engineer Charles Hutchins, of Cedartown, Ga., of the passenger train, wan cremated under his engine. The colored fireman and baggage-master were seriously injured, and the mail clerk and Pullman porter were slightly injured. There were about fifty passengers on the train, and all were badly shaken up, but only one sustained a slight injury. Immediately after the collision the wreckage took fire, and the entire passenger train, consisting of a Pullman sleeper, three day coaches, a baggage and express and mail car, and three freight cars, were burned. A flagman had been sent back by the freight train, but he claims he was unable to stop the fast-approaching passenger train in time to avert the Bulloch Hall at Exposition.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., March 1.—The contract for the erection of the Georgia State ballding at the Jamestown Exposition has been awarded to John Colligan & Co., of St. Louis, Mo. The contract was awarded to-day by Mr. W. N. Mitchell, president of the Georgia Commission to the exposition, who is in Norfolk with Mr. P. Thornton Mayre, the architect who drew the plans for the structure. The building will be completed about April 26th.

The Georgia State building is to be an exact reproduction of Bulloch Hall, the home of President Roosevelt's mother, and in which the President's parents were married.

NEGRO WOMAN COMPLAINS OF DIRTY JIM CROW CARS

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 1.—Georgia Edwards, a negro woman living in-Chattanooga, has filed a complaint with the Interstate Commerce Commission against the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railway Company, operating the Western and Atlantic Railroad, starting that the passenger coaches furnished to negro passengers purchasing first-class tickets on the Western and Atlantic road are dirty and filthy. The plaintiff asked that the company be directed to furnish negro passengers with suitable cars and accommodations, in consideration of the first-class fare paid for transportation.

MAN DYING OF CONSUMPTION HANGED PLEADING INNOCENCE

MARIETTA, GA., March 1.—John Bullard, convicted of the murder of his seventeen-year-old daughter, Ruby, at their home near Powder Springs, last September, was hanged here to-day. He was dying with consumption. It had been a question for the past week whether disease or the hangman's noose would claim him. He was supported on the trap, and with his last breath declared that the death of his daughter was the result of an acciden.

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 1.—With all but two of the government's with nesses examined the United States Circuit Court adjourned this afternoon on account of the illness of a juror in the case of the government against Edward A. Smith and Sumner Sargent, defendants in the test case against the Charlotte, N. C., mill owners, who are being sued for $71,000 for violations of the immigration act. The juror is not seriously ill, and it is thought the trial can be resumed to-morrow morning. Several of the English mill girls who were brought here to work in the defendants' mills, went on the stand to-day and told their stories. They said the Costello, the alleged agent of the defendants promised them double the wages they were making in England, house rent free, and clothing of charlotte, N. Several of the English mill girls who were brought here to work in the defendants mills, went on the stand to-day and told their stories. They said the Costello, the alleged agent of the defendants promised them double the wages they were making in England, house rent free, and clothing of the American style if they came to America. One testified that American operatives were discharged in order to give them positions. Samuel Ross, of New Bedford, Massa, a member of the Legislature of Massachusetts, and secretary of the mill spinners of America, and J. F. Heffie, of Fall River, secretary of the International Union of Textile Workers, declared that there were operatives of the kind imported by the defendants in New England without work.
